(Special to The Evening World.) CLEVELAND (en route to New York, Sept. 1.—Homebound) At 6 o'clock to-night the Giants will pull into the Grand Central Station with the best record ever made by a New York team on a Western trip.

With the series that ended with the double-header in Cincinnati yesterday afternoon, the Giants won twelve out of fourteen games. Starting in at Pittsburgh, they got two out of four from Chicago, followed by four straight in the World's Fair City. Then came the three in Cincinnati.

To say that McGraw is pleased with the success of the last short drive around the country would be putting it mildly. "Of course, I hoped for such good, consistent playing by the boys," said McGraw, "but it did not seem likely that things would turn out as they did."

Elliotte to Pitch. New York fans will be given a chance to see Pitcher Elliotte in the series with Boston at the Polo Grounds. McGraw is much pleased with Elliotte, whom he engaged from the Cincinnati Club about a month ago.

MANY WORKOUTS AT GRAVESEND TRACK

(Special to The Evening World.) GRAVESEND, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Bright, clear weather held the foot at the Gravesend course this morning during the galloping hours. The track was dry and fast, and the racers had no trouble in going over it in creditable time.

The principal workouts noted were the following: NICK LONGWORTH—One mile in 1:50, handled by J. Hynes, trainer. TOMMY WADDELL—Five furlongs in 1:05, handled by J. Hynes, trainer. HYDIANDREA—Four furlongs in 0:55, handled by J. Hynes, trainer.

MAJOR DAINGERFIELD—One mile in 1:50, handled by J. Hynes, trainer. DIVINATION—One mile in 1:51, handled by J. Hynes, trainer. WILD THYME—One mile in 1:48, handled by J. Hynes, trainer. THE CURSE—Six furlongs in 1:22, handled by J. Hynes, trainer.

NEIL FAILED TO PUT OUT TOMMY MURPHY

(Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—Tommy Murphy, the New York bantam-weight, still remains undefeated. Last night Frankie Neil, of San Francisco, the bantam-weight champion of the world, failed to do the trick for the Gothamites.

The contest took place at the National Athletic Club and was brimful of excitement. The usual fighting crowd was on hand, which was augmented by 300 New Yorkers. Neil started off somewhat cautiously and felt of his man with left feint, finally letting drive with two hard smashes with left on the jaw. Murphy appeared nervous and worried from the onslaught, and Neil reached his man's face repeatedly. After two minutes fighting, during which Frankie landed a majority of the blows, Murphy woke up and took a hand in the punching business himself.

Three times in succession he smashed Neil on the jaw, but the latter only smiled, waiting to get his victim's left in the stomach or on the jaw. Neither man appeared much the worse for the round when the gong sounded, but Neil was clearly entitled to the honors. Murphy was the first to lead in the second round and a clinch followed. Neil caught his opponent a stiff jolt on the jaw in the breakaway, and Murphy swung, but the blow went wild. Neil then sent his left on to the New Yorker's nose, from which the latter began to flow freely. This awakened Murphy, and with a right smash on the jaw he sent Neil to the ropes. A left jab which followed straightened the champion, who replied with a volley of blows on the jaw and body. Murphy was forced to cover up repeatedly and Neil was unable to reach a vital spot.

TRADITION GETS HER FINAL TRIAL TO-DAY

(Special to The Evening World.) SHEEPSHEAD BAY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Dark clouds hung over the Sheepshay head Bay course in the early hours this morning and the air was quite humid as the trainers, horses and cloths gathered on the grounds for the exercises. There were many horses sent to exercise and all hands had a busy morning of it.

The feature of the day's doings was the conspicuous trial of Sydney Page's grand filly Tradition, who was given her final preparation for the Flushing to be decided on Saturday by going over five furlongs, the distance of the race, in 1:27.5.

The principal workouts noted were the following: HEART'S DESIRE—Five furlongs in 1:10, handled by J. W. Rogers, trainer. TANYA—Six furlongs in 1:15, handled by J. W. Rogers, trainer. CRICKET—Five furlongs in 1:04, handled by J. W. Rogers, trainer. TRAITION—Seven furlongs in 1:27.5, handled by J. W. Rogers, trainer.

BIG FORTUNE LOST BY PLUNGER BY A NECK

"Whiter" Langdon lost one of the hardest bets of his career yesterday. He stood to win $20,000 on Dainty, and she was beaten a neck.

What made the disappointment more keen was the fact that Dainty was clearly the best of the bunch, getting away absolutely last by several lengths. In fact, she was as good as left at the post.

This was no fault of the starter's, for Dainty was in position and very slow to begin. Just as the barrier arose Caughnawaga bore over on the mare, and she was crowded back, so that before she could find her feet again the field was lengths away. Dainty ran the best race of her career, but that is little consolation to those who had backed her to win a fortune.
